CANDICE RENEE

Candice is a passionate globetrotter, hobby photographer, and a true foodie! A master of many things, Candice has been a successful art auctioneer, restaurant manager, and real estate agent, but her favorite career came as a luxury brand consultant promoting and marketing in exotic destinations. Known as one of the best in the business, Candice held presentations for thousands, and hosted on-board TV shows, while living on a 5 star cruise ship. Currently Candice pursues a busy West Coast life with her husband and baby boy, Hudson. She loves running, writing, and is a soon-to-be published author of the Motherhood book "You've Got This, Mama". Extremely organized and hard-working, this mama just loves life.
